LIQUOR CONTROL COMMISSION HEARS CASES REGARDING COVID-19
PUBLIC HEALTH REGULATIONS

(COLUMBUS, Ohio, September 14, 2020) – The Ohio Liquor Control Commission (Commission) conducted administrative hearings last week (September 8th through 11th) for liquor permit holders cited with violations related to Ohio’s health and safety regulations aimed to prevent the spread of COVID-19 within the state.

There were 19 cases heard by the Commission. Charges included violating social distancing orders and engaging in various forms of improper conduct in violation of Ohio Department of Health orders. Two permit holders had a prior pending violation, which the Commission also heard.

The following are the details of the charges for each case and the Commission’s decisions:

- HIGHLAND TAVERN LLC, AKRON, OH

Violations:

No. 1: On or about Saturday, August 8, 2020, you, your agent(s), and/or employee(s) allowed consumption of beer, wine, mixed beverages, or spirituous liquor on the premises Monday to Sunday between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 5:30 a.m. in violation of Rule 4301:1-1- 80(A)(2) of the Ohio Administrative Code (“limitation of hours for on-premises sales and consumption”).

No. 2: On or about Saturday, August 8, 2020, you, your agent(s), and/or employee(s) knowingly and/or willfully allowed and/or engaged in improper conduct, to wit: DISORDERLY ACTIVITIES as defined in Rule 4301:1-1-52(A)(1) and as further set forth in Section 2917.11 (A)(5) of the Revised Code, in and upon the permit premises in violation of Ohio Admin. Code 4301:1-1-52 (B)(1) (“allowing persons to engage in disorderly activities”).

Outcome:

At the hearing, the permit holder entered a denial as to all the violations, but stipulated to the facts. Based on the evidence presented, the Commission found the permit holder in violation. The Commission revoked the permit effective October 2, 2020.

- HIGHLAND TAVERN LLC, AKRON, OH
